OVERVIEW Legislation enacting the California Public Records Act (hereinafter, "CPRA") was signed in 1968, culminating a 15-year-long effort to create a general records law for California.

Summary of the California Public Records Act 2004

In law, a summary judgment (also judgment as a matter of law) is a judgment entered by a court for one party and against another party summarily, i.e., without a full trial. Such a judgment may be issued on the merits of an entire case, or on discrete issues in that case.. In common-law systems, questions about what the law actually is in a particular case are decided by judges; in rare cases ...
