The Citroën C5 is a large family car produced by the French manufacturer Citroën since March 2001, and now in its second generation. The C5 replaced the Citroën Xantia, in the large family car class. It is not the first Citroën with "Cx" naming nomenclature, as it was used by its ancestors, the C4 and C6 from 1930. The third generation is expected to be released in 2020.

The Citroën CX is an executive car produced by the French automaker Citroën from 1974 to 1991. Citroën sold nearly 1.2 million CXs during its 16 years of production. The CX was voted European Car of the Year in 1975. The name CX is derived from the symbol for drag coefficient, drawing attention to the car's aerodynamic design, which was uncommon in 1974.
